

Proclamation

Whereas, child abuse is considered to be one of our nation's most serious public health problems with scientific studies documenting the link between the abuse and neglect of children and a wide range of medical, emotional, psychological and behavioral disorders;
and

Whereas, it is estimated that 1 in 4 children will suffer significant abuse before the age of 18 and in 2023, 164,000 contacts were made to the Oregon Child Abuse Hotline - a total of 45,208 received reports were assigned for CPS assessment, of all completed CPS assessments, 7,861 were founded for abuse and involved 11,191 victims; and

Whereas, the physical, emotional, mental and financial impact of abuse falls on children of all ages and abilities, who come from all economic, racial and social backgrounds; and these crimes affect many more family members, friends'; neighbors and community; and

Whereas, effective child abuse prevention efforts succeed because of partnerships created among state and local government agencies, schools, faith communities, civic and community organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the business community; and

Whereas, the City of Lafayette is dedicated to strengthening child abuse survivors and their non-offending families in the aftermath of crime, building resilience in our communities, and working to prevent abuse and neglect.

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby proclaim April 2025 to be
